Personal data protection and use of Participants' images

1. The Organizer will process the Participants' personal data (first name, last name, place of employment, position, academic title, and e-mail address) as administrator in compliance with the provisions of generally applicable law, in particular the GDPR, in order to organize and enable participation in the Conference and accounting for it.
2. The Organizer can be contacted in writing, by post to: ul. Słowackiego 17/11, 60-822 Poznań or e-mail: sekretariat@ppbw.pl.
3. The Organizer has appointed a Personal Data Protection Inspector, who can be contacted at e-mail address: iodo@ppbw.pl.
4. At the time of Registration, the Conference Participant:
 - 1) Voluntarily gives consent to the Organizer, i.e., the Polish Platform for Homeland Security Association, with its registered office at ul. Słowackiego 17/11, 62-051 Poznań, Poland (KRS no.: 0000251345), to process the Participant's personal data (Appendix 1 to these Terms and Conditions), namely the first and last name, the email address, and the name of the institution (optionally the position and the academic title) in order to organize and enable participation in the Conference.

- 2) Voluntarily agrees to the gratuitous use of the image fixed and recorded in the form of a video film and/or photographs in the course of the Conference, for non-commercial purposes, in particular to promote the aforementioned event and other similar events, by posting photos on the website www.ppbw.pl and in social media in the Organizer's accounts (Appendix 1 to these Terms and Conditions).
5. The Organizer stipulates that consent to the processing of personal data is a condition for the participation in the Conference.
6. Consent to the use of the image for the purposes indicated in the form (Appendix 1) is not a prerequisite for participation in the Conference, but will result in the lack of publication on the Organizer's website and in its social media accounts of photographs with the person who has not given such consent, or the release of the photographs/video material will be made with the blurring of the image of a specific person who has not given consent to the use of his or her image.
7. A Participant may decide at any time to withdraw his or her consent to the processing of his or her personal data or image; however, this will not result in the loss of legality of the processing of the Participant's personal data or image during the period prior to the withdrawal of consent to their processing.
8. The Participant will receive the data protection notice in the course of Registration and in accordance with the wording of Articles 13 or 14 of the GDPR - Appendix 1 to the Terms and conditions
9. A participant whose personal data is processed by the Organiser has the right:
 - 1) to request access to, correct, delete or restrict the processing of the provided personal data and the right to object to the processing, as well as the right to data portability;
 - 2) to withdraw the given consent at any time. The above does not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out on the basis of my consent before its withdrawal;
 - 3) to make a complaint to the President of the Office for the Protection of Personal Data if you consider that the processing of personal data concerning you violates the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council (EU) 2016/679 of 27 April 2016, known as RODO.
10. The Participant's personal data will be made available to the AGH University of Science and Technology in Krakow (co-organiser of the event). The data may be made available to:

 - d) Online transfer without Proforma invoice.
2. After receiving the Registration notice, the necessary data, and selection of payment by traditional bank transfer, the Organizer will issue a proforma invoice payable within 14 days but no later than on September 23, 2024, which will be sent to the email address indicated by the Participant in the Registration form.
3. Non-cash payment using the PayNow service can be made after prior registration on the Organiser's website and acceptance of the regulations of the Pay Now service of mBank S.A.. Online payments are handled by mBank's payment gateway: www.mbank.pl/paynow.
4. Details of the transactions made are contained in the regulations of paynow.pl, available on the website of the integrator - mBank S.A.: <https://www.mbank.pl/pdf/firmy/konta/regulamin-uslugi-integratora-platnosci-dla-firm-obow-od-14-12-2023.pdf>
5. By registering, the Participant agrees to be make payments on the basis of accounting documents issued and sent electronically. To the amount invoiced, VAT tax will be added in accordance with generally applicable laws.
6. After receipt of the payment, the Organiser will issue a final VAT Invoice with the same details as the proforma invoice or the details provided by the Participant for PayNow payments.
7. The payment will be considered to be made on the date the funds are credited to the Organizer's bank account.
8. Making the payment is a condition of participation in the Conference for Participants whose participation in the Conference is payable in accordance with the provisions of these Terms and Conditions.
9. Completion and submission of the Registration form is tantamount to the conclusion of an agreement between the Organizer and the Participant for the provision of services during the Conference, i.e., a presentation/workshop/exhibition. The Organizer does not require signing a separate agreement. Completion of the form and registration are tantamount to an obligation to pay the price according to the Price List referred to in §3 of these Terms and Conditions and under the terms and conditions regulated therein, except for Participants and institutions exempted from the obligation to pay the fee pursuant to these Terms and Conditions.

10. In the event of cancellation of participation in the Conference, the Organizer will not refund the fees paid for the participation. Cancellation of registration or failure to participate in the Conference does not relieve the Participant from the obligation to pay, subject to §13 of these Terms and Conditions and the right of a Participant - Consumer to withdraw from the Agreement.
11. The Organizer will not provide parking spaces for Participants.
12. The Organizer will provide, within the price of participation, a simultaneous translation service during the conference panel session.
13. Payments can be made in Polish currency (PLN) and in Euros. The price list contains prices in both currencies.
14. Technical conditions: in order to use online payment, it is necessary for the Customer to meet the following technical requirements:
 - 1) having devices that provide access to the Internet,
 - 2) registration,
 - 3) to have an updated web browser to ensure correct display of the web pages,
 - 4) having an e-mail address so that the Organizer can contact the Participant,
 - 5) having access to the payment method supported by the PAYNOW system, thus having a bank account, having a payment card or having access to the BLIK payment method - applies to PayNow payments.

Exhibition

1. The minimum exhibition area that can be ordered is 2 m².
2. The Organizer will provide a table with a cover (e.g. a tablecloth) and two chairs, access to electricity (extension cord) and WI-FI during the 3 days of the Conference.
3. The location of the stand will be allocated according to the order of Registration and the layout design of the area where the exhibition will be held. The Organizer reserves the right to change the assigned location for organizational reasons. The above does not apply to a Participant - Consumer.
4. The stand should be arranged and prepared for the exhibition on the preceding day, unless otherwise agreed between the Organizer and the exhibitors.
5. An Active Participant is required to clean up the stand and leave it with all items/tools/equipment brought no later than on the last day of the Conference by one 3.00 p.m.
6. Exceeding the deadline referred to in par. 5 above will result in the Organizer charging a contractual penalty of PLN 100 for each hour of delay. The Organizer stipulates, and the Active Participant accepts, that the Organizer will be able to claim damages exceeding the value of the contractual penalty in accordance with general principles.

Conference and workshop panel

1. The titles of speeches and workshops should be submitted to the Organizer during the Registration.
2. The presentations to be given during the conference panel session should be submitted to the Organizer no later than on September 20, 2024, unless otherwise agreed with the Organizer in email correspondence and unless the Organizer has expressly accepted the change in this regard.

Promotional activities

1. The Organizer reserves the right to post information about the Speakers/companies on the Organizer's social media. With respect to the Speakers, such posting will be possible on condition that they agree to the free use of their images for this purpose.
2. The logos of the companies and institutions actively participating in the Conference will be published on the Conference website. The website will also have a Speakers section with an image of each Speaker who has agreed to the free use of his or her image.

Organizational provisions

1. It is forbidden to resell electronic registration confirmations at auctions or in any other manner indicating the commercial nature of such resale. Any public offering, even if free of charge, of the transfer of ownership of electronic registration confirmations, including as prizes in contests, sweepstakes, bonus sales, or any other promotions is prohibited.
2. The Organizer informs that in accordance with Article 133 (1 and 2) of the Act of May 20, 1971 - Misdemeanors Code (Journal of Laws of 2023, item 2119): "Whoever purchases admission tickets to artistic, entertainment, or sports events for resale at a profit, or whoever sells such tickets at a profit, shall be punished by arrest, restriction of liberty, or a fine. Attempt, incitement, and aiding and abetting shall be punishable."
3. Electronic confirmation of the registration, which authorizes entry to the Conference, must be obtained in accordance with the provisions of these Terms and Conditions. Electronic confirmations of the registration acquired in violation of these Terms and Conditions may be invalidated by the Organizer.
4. The Conference Participants are required to comply with generally applicable health and safety rules, fire safety regulations, sanitary regulations, administrative regulations and internal orders in force at the Conference site.
5. The Conference Participants may stay at the Conference site only during the opening hours designated by the Organizer.
6. Taking photograph, filming, and making drawings of individual stands or exhibits for commercial purposes requires prior permission from the Organizer.
7. It is forbidden for the Conference Participants to carry out any commercial, selling, advertising, promotional, as well as canvassing activities and cash collections not agreed with the Organizer, as well as activities in violation of applicable laws.
8. The following are absolutely forbidden at the Conference site: bringing and using weapons, ammunition, and pyrotechnic materials, harmful chemicals, open fire, and materials that pose the risk of a fire or damage to property and constitute hazard to the health or life of persons and public safety, bringing and consuming alcohol and intoxicants, smoking tobacco products, and using electronic cigarettes, behaving inconsistently with the rules of social interaction, and disrupting public order.
9. The Conference Participants are not allowed to bring luggage except hand luggage. Hand luggage is defined as luggage with the maximum dimensions of 35 cm × 20 cm × 20 cm. Backpacks, bags, or suitcases of larger dimensions should be left at the cloakroom. This does not apply to exhibitors, i.e., Active Participants of the Conference having an exhibition stand, if the preparation of their stands requires bringing luggage of larger size. At the same time, such need should be agreed with the Organizer.
10. The Conference Participants are not allowed to bring animals with them. The exception is guide dogs for the blind and visually impaired.
11. The Conference Participants may stay in the places provided by the Organizer and move only along the routes marked by the Organizer.
12. It is forbidden to move, carry away, or destroy any items located at the Conference site.
13. The Conference Participants are obliged to follow the instructions of security and information personnel, as well as officers of the Fire Brigade or other state services.
14. The Organizer will provide free access to cloakrooms and toilets.
15. Regardless of the fulfillment of the above requirements by a Participant, the Organizer has the right to refuse entry or to ask the following persons to leave the Conference site:

- 1) persons under the apparent influence of alcohol, intoxicants, psychotropic drugs, or other substances with similar effects;
 - 2) persons in possession of weapons or other dangerous objects, explosives, pyrotechnic materials, materials posing a fire hazard, alcoholic beverages, intoxicants, or psychotropic substances. It is up to the security and information service staff to evaluate items and classify them as dangerous;
 - 3) persons behaving aggressively or provocatively, or otherwise posing a threat to security or public order.
16. Security and information service staff may issue their own safety and fire instructions in accordance with applicable laws.

§11

Liability for damages

1. The Conference Participants bear the full financial responsibility for the damage they cause.
2. The Organizer is not responsible for damages caused by third parties or due to the fault of the injured party.
3. The Organizer is not responsible for damages caused by force majeure.
4. The Organizer is not responsible for items left unattended by the owner at the Conference site (clothing, hand luggage, other items).
5. The Organizer is responsible only for the items handed over for storage, except for valuable items (jewelry, photographic equipment, etc.).

§12

Complaint procedure

1. The Participants may submit complaints related to the provision of services by the Organizer and other complaints related to participation in the Conference:
 - 1) in writing to the following address: ul. Słowackiego 17/11, 60-822 Poznań, Poland;
 - 2) in electronic form in an e-mail message sent to: sekretariat@ppbw.pl.
2. In the description of the complaint, the Participant should specify:
 - 1) the information and circumstances regarding the subject of the complaint, in particular the type and date of the irregularity;
 - 2) the Participant's demands;
 - 3) contact details of the person submitting the complainant - this will facilitate and speed up the processing of the complaint by the Organizer. The requirements stated in the preceding sentence are only a recommendation and do not affect the effectiveness of complaints submitted without the recommended description of the complaint.
3. The Organizer will respond to the complaint referred to in par. 1 above without delay, no later than within 14 calendar days from the date of its submission. Failure of the Organizer to respond will mean acceptance of the complaint.

A Consumer's right of withdrawal from the agreement

1. A Participant - Consumer who has entered into a distance agreement or an agreement concluded outside the premises of a business/the Organizer may withdraw from the agreement within 14 days without stating a reason and without incurring costs, except for the cost of the services performed in accordance with the express request of the Consumer before the expiration of the aforementioned time limit.

2. To meet the time limit, it is sufficient to send the statement of withdrawal before its expiration. The statement of withdrawal can be submitted, for example:
 - 1) in writing to the following address: ul. Słowackiego 17/11, 60-822 Poznań, Poland;
 - 2) in electronic form in an e-mail message sent to: sekretariat@ppbw.pl.
 - 3) A sample withdrawal form is included in Appendix 2 to the Act on consumer rights and is available as Appendix 3 to these Terms and Conditions. A Consumer can use the model form, but it is not mandatory.
3. The period for withdrawal from the agreement begins from the date of conclusion of the agreement.
4. In the case of withdrawal from a distance agreement, after the withdrawal the agreement is considered as not concluded.
5. The Organizer is obliged to return to the Consumer all payments made by him or her, including the costs of delivery of a Product (except for additional costs resulting from the delivery method chosen by the Consumer other than the cheapest ordinary delivery method), immediately, no later than within 14 calendar days from the date of receipt of the Participant-Consumer's statement of withdrawal from the agreement. The Organizer will refund the payment using the same method of payment as that used by the Consumer, unless the Consumer has expressly agreed to a different method that does not involve any costs for the Consumer.
6. Any repayments shall be made to the bank account from which the Organizer received the payment, and in the case of payments made by payment card - to the account corresponding to the payment card used to make the payment.

Out-of-court ways of handling complaints and pursuing claims, and rules of access to these procedures

1. Detailed information on the possibility for a Participant who is a Consumer to use out-of-court procedures for handling complaints and pursuing claims, as well as the rules of access to these procedures are available on the website of the Office of Competition and Consumer Protection at the Internet address being one of the tabs of www.uokik.gov.pl:
https://uokik.gov.pl/pozasadowe_rozwiazywanie_sporow_konsumenckich.php.
2. There is also a free contact point for Consumers at the President of the Office of Competition and Consumer Protection (tel.: +48 22 55 60 333, email: kontakt.adr@uokik.gov.pl, or mailing address: Pl. Powstańców Warszawy 1, Warsaw), whose tasks include the provision of assistance to Consumers in matters concerning out-of-court settlement of consumer disputes.
3. A Consumer has the following examples of out-of-court ways of handling of complaints and pursuing claims:
 - 1) a request for dispute resolution submitted to a permanent amicable consumer court (for more information, visit: <http://www.spsk.wiih.org.pl/>);
 - 2) a request for out-of-court dispute resolution submitted to the provincial inspector of the Trade Inspection (for more information, visit the website of the inspector competent for the Seller's place of business);
 - 3) assistance of the district (city) consumer ombudsman or a social organization whose statutory tasks include consumer protection (such as the Consumer Federation or the Association of Polish Consumers). Advice is provided, among other things, by email at porady@dlakonsumentow.pl and by calling the consumer hotline at 801 440 220 (hotline open on business days, from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., call charge according to the operator's tariff).
4. A platform for online dispute resolution between consumers and businesses at the EU level (ODR platform) is available at <http://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr>. The ODR platform is an interactive and multilingual website with a place for comprehensive service for consumers and businesses seeking out-of-court resolution of disputes regarding contractual obligations arising from an online sales or service agreement (for more information, visit the platform itself or the website of the Office of Competition and Consumer Protection at https://uokik.gov.pl/spory_konsumenckie_faq_platforma_odr.php).

Provisions regarding Entrepreneurs

1. The provisions of this paragraph apply only to Participants who are not Consumers.
2. The Organizer has the right to withdraw from the Agreement concluded with a Participant who is not a Consumer no later than 14 calendar days before the date of the Conference. Withdrawal from the Agreement in this case may take place without providing any reason and does not give rise to any claims on the part of the Participant who is not a Consumer against the Organizer.
3. In the case of Participants who are not Consumers, the Organizer has the right to limit the available payment methods, including requiring prepayment in full or in part, regardless of the payment method chosen by the Participant and the fact of conclusion of the Agreement.
4. If the product is sent to the Participant via a carrier, the Participant who is not a Consumer is obliged to examine the shipment at the time and in the manner that are usual for shipments of this type. If the Participant finds that there was a loss or damage to the product during the carriage, the Participant is obliged to do all things necessary to determine the carrier's liability.
5. According to Article 558 (1) of the Civil Code, the Organizer's liability to a Participant who is not a Consumer under implied warranty for defects of a product is ruled out.
6. Any disputes arising between the Organizer and a Participant who is not a Consumer will be submitted to the court having jurisdiction for the Organizer's registered office.
7. The proper law for the resolution of disputes arising from the conclusion and performance of the Agreement between a Participant who is not a Consumer and the Organizer is the law of Poland.
8. The Organizer has the right to transfer all or a part of the obligations under these Terms and Conditions to a third party, to which the Participant who is not a Consumer agrees.

Final provisions

1. The Organizer reserves the right to change the agenda of the Conference, in particular by changing the time of specific presentation or changing the speaker.
2. The up-to-date information can be found on the website (<https://ppbw.pl/en/cintia-conference/>).
3. The Organizer reserves the right to change these Terms and Conditions - in particular in the event of amendments to generally applicable laws.
4. Any issues not regulated in these Terms and Conditions remain to be determined individually with the Organizer and the provisions of generally applicable Polish law - in particular the Civil Code - shall apply.
5. The proper court for any disputes between the Organizer or the Co-Organizer and the Participants will be a court of competent jurisdiction in Poland.
6. These Terms and Conditions enter into force on the date of their publication on the website (<https://ppbw.pl/en/cintia-conference/>), i.e. on February 15, 2024.
